

May 6, 2006 - The Oshawa Generals have selected defenceman Michael Del Zotto from the Markham Waxers AAA Midget team with the second overall pick in the 2006 OHL Priority Selection. Del Zotto is a 6'0" 190lb defenceman who scored 30 goals and added 90 assists for 120 points in 73 games last season. He also had 90 minutes in penalties.

The OHL Scouting Report on Michael says: Del Zotto is an all around high-end defenseman. He has very good feet, great mobility and exceptional puck skills. He is effective in all three zones. Del Zotto has the ability to be involved in all facets of the offensive game. He effectively makes the first pass out of the zone, he can jump up into the rush in the neutral zone or he can control the play at the offensive blueline.

Michael Del Zotto stands between Brad Selwood and John Davies Saturday after the Generals selected the defenceman with the second overall pick in the 2006 OHL Priority Selection. Michael is also modelling the Generals' new uniform, with the teams' new logo for the upcoming season.
